

Hi my name is _____, I do karate at Midwest Professional Karate and we are doing a Kick-a-thon to raise money for LLS, a group that raises money for blood cancer research and patient care. On March 8th, I get to break my board, with my bad habit on it, using my karate skills. When I break my board I will break my bad habit! Would you be willing to donate money to LLS and help me kick away blood cancer? If you donate you can sign my board to show your support.
